

ABRAHAM LINCOLN
Gene Griessman's one-man show
Lincoln Live
Saturday, February 12, 2005
12:00 and 2:00 pm
JIMMY CARTER PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY & MUSEUM
(The performance is free with paid admission)

Gene Griessman's remarkable performance and uncanny resemblance to Lincoln bring one of the world's most beloved figures to life. The stately look and resonant voice with its wry humor are exacting. His powerful portrayal of Lincoln's insights and achievements is eloquent and completely meaningful to all of us. Many who have witnessed this portrayal have stated that they felt Lincoln was actually present.

The wisdom, humor, and eloquence of the 16th President is brought to life in this stirring interpretation, which vividly portrays critical moments from Lincoln's life. You will revisit Gettysburg and Ford's Theatre with Lincoln. You will learn the lessons he learned about leadership, persistence, communication, and personal achievement.

Time has not diminished the power of Lincoln's insights on leadership, diversity, self-improvement, will power, and persistence. You will learn unforgettable lessons from one of the great figures of all time. This will be an exciting, fun-filled, poignant performance. Lincoln was not stuffy. He was a wonderful storyteller. You'll love his jokes, and you may even brush away a tear.